Chapter 13 To 14

“Ah Zhen, thank you for your 50,000 yuan. If it wasn't for this 50,000 yuan, I'm afraid I wouldn't be able to last this month.” From inside the room, the low voice of a male could be heard, but the ear-piercing voice of a male could still be heard. It turned out that his mother had given the fifty thousand yuan to Bai Zhan House.

He couldn't help but feel angry, “Mom, get out here right now.” Although she was embarrassed to go in, it did not mean that she did not dare to shout out.

The room was immediately filled with rustling sounds. Immediately afterwards, Liang Shuren even opened the door, her clothes in disarray. “Late Autumn, why have you come?” It was as if she did not expect that Liang Shuren's face did not look so good. Perhaps she was afraid that Zhong Wanqiu would reveal the origin of the fifty thousand yuan.

“Give it back to me.” She stretched out her hand and looked coldly at Liang ShuZhen. She really wanted to slap him. Was this her mother? How could she have such a mother?

Leaving her room hurriedly, she closed the door in fear of being seen by Zhong Wanqiu. Holding her hand, she walked towards the grape arbour, all the way over to Bai Hui. Without waiting for her greetings, she pressed on Zhong Wanqiu's shoulder and sat on a wooden chair with two men under the grape arbour. She hurriedly said, “Evening Autumn, Mom has no other choice. I can't just watch your Uncle Bai's company have problems. When Mom has money, I'll return it to you.”

“You're not giving it back to me, you're giving it back to Xia Jingxuan. Mom, how can you casually cheat others of their money?” With a huge rage, Zhong Wanqiu stood up with a “Teng” as his face flushed red.

“Late autumn, lower your voice.”

“How can I whisper? Are you here to work or are you here to put on a face? “Give it back to me ...”

“Howl ...” Liang Shuren’s tears fell like strings of crystals. “Late autumn, mom is just being soft-hearted. Mom can’t stand it anymore, just like how she couldn’t stand watching you get bullied by others in the orphanage ...”

She was indeed a child Liang Shuzhen had spent 20,000 yuan to adopt from the orphanage. As soon as she said this, she remembered that she owed Liang Shuzhen 20,000 yuan. Although she didn’t know how much money she had already given her, it was still unclear how much money she had with Liang Shuzhen.

“Mom ...” Liang Shuzhen’s heart softened. She always knew what her weakness was.

“Late autumn, just this once, when Mom has the money, I’ll give it to you immediately.”

What else could she say? She kept shaking her head and sighing. When she walked out of the Bai Clan’s gate, she had an indescribable feeling in her heart. She felt sad for Liang Shuren, but what about the fifty thousand yuan? Jin Ruoxue couldn’t possibly continuously curse at her shamelessness.

As they walked, they kicked rocks, “Late Autumn, is that you?” Suddenly, a figure appeared in front of her, blocking the burning sunlight. Bai Mo Yu was standing quietly in front of her.

“Go away.” She didn’t like Bai Mo Yu. He was the one who kept pestering her to give her calls, but Bai Hui always said that she was the one who wanted to climb up to the Bai Clan. What was so good about the Bai Clan now that they had declined, they still needed to use her mother’s fifty thousand to save them.

The Feng Shui cycle rotated, this was the feeling of falling from the clouds to the mud.

“Late autumn, I’ll return that fifty thousand to you for my dad. Just give me a few more days, okay?”

“No need.” She strode past Bai Mo Yu. She didn’t want to have anything to do with the Bai Family. If it wasn’t for Liang Shuzhen, she really wouldn’t have come.

“Late autumn ...” The man behind her lightly called out to her with an apologetic tone.

“Goodbye.” She was afraid that this handsome guy would call her to look at her like that, that pair of eyes that were as passionate as water, but she still felt that it was fake and definitely not real. The first time she saw Bai Mo Yu look at her eyes, she felt as if she had fallen into a dream.

But she didn’t like men to be so elegant and beautiful, and the orphanage teacher said her father was the same, gentle and refined, the kind of man a woman would fall in love with at first sight.

She didn’t like it. If her father’s eyes hadn’t been captivated by the woman, her mother wouldn’t have jumped off the building to commit suicide. She wouldn’t have been sent to the orphanage to die because of her father’s regret.

She would never fall in love with a man like her father.

Zhong Xiuqiu ran as fast as he could, as though the man behind him was a venomous snake or a ferocious beast.

“Crack ...”

The sound of the emergency parking brake and the sound of the car’s horn suddenly reached her ears. Her body swayed, and the violent impact caused Zhong Wanqiu to fall down. She frowned as she felt pain coming from her leg.

A shadow quickly appeared in front of her, and the cold yet familiar male voice was heard again, “Zhong Wanqiu, you still haven’t given up yet?”

The heavens were against him.

No wonder his words were so harsh. Did he think that she was trying to seduce him?

Leaning on the ground, not caring about the pain in his leg, Zhong Wanqiu stood up stubbornly.

“Late autumn, why were you so careless?” Bai Mo Yu had already caught up with her and reached out to help her up, “I’ll take you to the hospital for a checkup.” With such a good opportunity to get close to Zhong Xiuqiu, he ignored the man who bumped into him.

“Thank you, let’s go.” He didn’t look at Leng Mu Xun and just allowed Bai Mo Yu to help her limp forward. As she walked, he observed if a taxi passed by.

Neither she nor Bai Mo Yu noticed that there were drops of blood dripping onto the ground. Leng Mu Xun was staring at the blood-red ground, but it was so dazzling that from head to tail, Zhong Wan Qiu didn’t even look at him.

Could it be that his words from before were too harsh?

Then he remembered how she had turned away from his office, like a wounded deer, and how different she had been from the women who had tried to get close to him.

Perhaps he really had been wrong about her.

His phone rang. Leng Muqin looked at the man supporting her getting on the taxi and asked, “Little Zhang, what’s the matter?” It was his secretary. Something had to be the matter.

“CEO, the diagnosis certificate that you wanted in America has been obtained.”

“What’s the situation like?”

“Not good, it shouldn’t be much time.”

His heart sank. “I know.” With that, he hung up the phone.

There was still one more meeting that he wouldn’t be able to rest for long until he was done with it. As for his grandfather, he had long since planned to deal with it.

He shook his head and jumped back into the car. Since the woman had a man to take care of her, he didn't have to worry about it. That night, he had to be crazy to kiss her.

Truly, her lips and eyes were alike, but unfortunately, she was not Min Qiu.

The car flew to the exhibition center, where he would be the star today, so he could not delay any longer.
